

Directory of EAST BAY ARTS

+ East Bay OPEN STUDIOS 2009

Artist Registration

Oakland/East Bay Artists: Show your art to the largest and most diverse art audience in the region.

The Directory of East Bay Arts and East Bay OPEN STUDIOS is a straightforward way for artists at any stage in their career to get their work seen by art patrons, curators, other artists, business leaders, community leaders, and art enthusiasts. After nearly 30 years, the annual East Bay Open Studios (EBOS) continues to bring visitors from all over the Bay Area to local artists' studios for the opportunity to see the best art made in the East Bay today, likewise, the publication, Directory of East Bay Art extends the reach of the event and provides a year-long reference, a Who's Who guide for artists.

Published and distributed in conjunction with East Bay Open Studios, the Directory of East Bay Arts includes artist listing, the East Bay Arts Index -an index of local arts organizations, galleries, venues and artist groups, and the East Bay Arts Calendar -a 12-month Arts Calendar of significant regional art events.

Together, the Directory of East Bay Arts and East Bay OPEN STUDIOS serve as essential resources for artists to cultivate new audiences for their work.

ABOUT EAST BAY OPEN STUDIOS

Established in 1979, East Bay Open Studios (EBOS) is the largest art event in the East Bay drawing over 50,000 visitors during the first two weekends in June. EBOS is produced by Pro Arts, a nonprofit artist-based organization that produces exhibitions, artist services and public programs in its gallery near Oakland's Jack London Square. EBOS includes a Preview Exhibition at Pro Arts gallery, a benefit Gala, the Brake for Art Tour: Art Bus Preview, artist workshops, online gallery and maps, networking events for artists and the Directory of East Bay Arts, the definitive guide to regional arts, including full color artist listings that serve as a regional catalog of working artists and maps for self-guided tours of artists' studios.

GUIDELINES

ELIGIBILITY

Any artist may participate in East Bay Open Studios and the Directory of East Bay Arts. Artists must have a studio, home or exhibition space in an East Bay Area city, such as Oakland, Berkeley, Emeryville, Albany, El Cerrito, Richmond, Walnut Creek, San Ramon, Fremont, Hayward, Livermore, etc. Artists seeking studio space for the event are encouraged to attend Workshop: Sharing Space, Thursday, January 8, 7pm.

DIRECTORY OF EAST BAY ARTS

Published in conjunction with the East Bay Open Studios, the Directory of East Bay Arts is the definitive guide to the arts in Oakland and the East Bay. This annual publication includes full color artist listings and maps to highlight the region's working artists and facilitate free self-guided tours of artist studios. Directories are inserted into the East Bay Express, and circulated throughout the greater Bay Area and available at Pro Arts, galleries, cafes, bookstores, and other arts venues beginning May.

Each artist entry includes a color image representing the artist's work. Images of artwork only, no logos or advertisements (See Discounted Display Ads). Upload image online by logging into the EBOS registration or deliver a disk with formatted image to Pro Arts. Label disks with artist's name, studio location and contact information.

Images must be formatted 2" x 2", rgb, 300 dpi, .jpg files only. (Note: final image size may vary due to layout.) Upload Expanded Entry descriptive text (200 characters max) online or deliver disk to Pro Arts. All content must be received by registration deadline.

The web page includes an artist listing, artist statement, resume and up to 8 images. The Online gallery includes a dynamic Map and search functions to locate artists by name, media, and city. Personalize your URL by upgrading your entry to Bold or Expanded. See "ENTRY".

PROMOTION

Between January and June Pro Arts promotes East Bay Open Studios through the collective marketing efforts of sponsors, media partners, businesses, participating artists and advertisements in local media. Additionally, artists are encouraged to promote their studios through additional grassroots efforts. To ensure the integrity of the event all announcements of any kind (postcards, fliers, e-mails, and posters) must include the East Bay Open Studios logo (available online at www.proartsgallery.org) and the following statement:

East Bay Open Studios is produced by Pro Arts, a nonprofit artist-based organization that encourages and exhibits artists' work and provides a venue for furthering communication in the arts. This event connects the public with over 400 regional artists and is accompanied by the Directory of East Bay Arts, the Preview Exhibition open May 6 - June 15, 2009, an online gallery, and the Brake for Art Tour: Art Bus Preview. Pro Arts produces exhibitions and events, the Youth Fellows Initiative and public programs year-round in its gallery at 550 Second Street Oakland, www.proartsgallery.org Media Sponsor: East Bay Express

PREVIEW EXHIBITION

Individual artists receive a 20" x 20" x 6" space in the EBOS Preview Exhibition at Pro Arts Gallery. This space may be utilized by the registered artist only. Use this space to entice visitors to your studio by presenting original work or high quality reproductions. Artists who plan thoughtful presentations in their space consistently receive more visitors to their studios.

Sales from the Preview Exhibition are encouraged; therefore Pro Arts suggests hanging available work. Artists receive 60% of sale price. If your work sells, payment is made within 30 days from the close of the Preview Exhibition.

Artists are responsible for installing and de-installing their own artwork. Check the Event Calendar for dates. After de-installation there is a $10 per day late fee assessed on all remaining artwork. Pro Arts is not responsible for unclaimed work after de-installation. Pro Arts may discard any work remaining after 30 days from the close of the Preview Exhibition.
